Information on Import Fees on Shipments from Canadian Origins to the U.S.

Duties and Taxes

- The Importer of Record is responsible for paying duties and taxes unless otherwise specified at the time of shipment preparation.
- Duties and taxes are determined and applied by the U.S. government for shipments arriving into the U.S.
- All shipments are subject to inspection by U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) or partner government agencies.
- Specific documentation is required for international shipments:
  - The U.S. does not charge duties or taxes for letters or documents, and no commercial invoice is required if "Documents Only" is written on the shipping waybill.

- Use UPS Paperless® Invoice to provide commodity-level invoice data through electronic upload to UPS®, eliminating the need to attach commercial invoices. Otherwise, three copies of a commercial invoice describing the contents and value of the shipment and the country of origin of the goods must be attached to the shipment.
- Ask your shipper to provide a valid

NAFTA Certificate of Origin or a NAFTA certification statement (as applicable), so the goods will receive the most favourable duty rate under NAFTA Rules of Origin.

- Use UPS TradeAbility® services to verify the landed cost of international shipments, search for restricted trading partners and identify U.S. government export licensing requirements and exceptions. See page 92 for more details.

Customs Brokerage Services

- Customs brokers are specialists in customs clearance procedures and are employed to act on the customer's behalf.
- Generally, the U.S. Importer of Record and/or the Canadian shipper must officially designate a customs broker to act on their behalf if the shipment value exceeds $50,000 USD. This designation is accomplished by issuing the broker a valid Power of Attorney.
- CBP requires U.S. importers to provide the clearance information specified in the U.S. Code of Federal Regulations.

Customs Brokerage Fees

The customs brokerage fees that may apply to a shipment fall into three main categories:

Entry Preparation Fees

Entry Preparation Fees include preparation and presentation of entry documents required by CBP and partner government agencies, including calculation of the applicable duties and taxes.

Bond Fees

A bond fee will apply when UPS is requested to remit payment on the importer's behalf to pay for the shipment's duties and taxes. Bond fees can be avoided if the importer opts to pay customs directly – call 1-800-782-7892 for details.

Additional Fees

Depending on the shipment and the services required by the customer, various other customs brokerage services and fees may apply. See the Customs Brokerage for the Exporter section on page 73, or call 1-800-782-7892 for details.
